

CONTROVERSY 10: SHOULD PEOPLE HAVE THE CHOICE TO END THEIR LIVES?

"End of Life: Exploring Death in America." Developed in conjunction with a series produced by National Public Radio. This web site contains an extraordinary range of material about dying and death, including stories submitted by ordinary people about experiences with their own life-threatening illnesses as well as deaths of friends and family members.

<http://www.npr.org/programs/death/>

Facts on Dying

<http://www.chcr.brown.edu/dying/whatsnew.htm>

Euthanasia World Directory

<http://www.finalexit.org/>

Death Rates for Suicide, 1950-2002

<http://www.infoplease.com/ipa/A0779940.html>

Suicide

<http://www.trinity.edu/~mkearl/death-su.html>

Last Acts. A record of the activities of the program conducted by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

<http://www.lastacts.org/>

Palliative Care Policy Center

<http://www.medicaring.org/>

Euthanasia Prevention Coalition BC

<http://www.epc.bc.ca/>

This site is a coalition to prevent the legalization of euthanasia. Found on this site are their beliefs, concerns, and their purpose. There is also contact information, including their e-mail so you can directly express your concerns or support of their coalition.

International Anti-Euthanasia Task Force

<http://www.iaetf.org/>

This site is an anti-euthanasia task force found in the Netherlands. There are frequently asked questions, court cases, fact sheets, and a detailed site index.

Euthanasia and Physician Assisted Suicide

<http://www.religioustolerance.org/euthanas.htm>

All Sides of the Issue This site gives definitions, laws, and religious and ethical aspects, while still maintaining neutrality. This site also contains essays and references for those interested in further exploring this topic.