SAGE’s award-winning, web-based research methods product is the place to go for researchers, lecturers and students studying social science subjects.

SAGE's award-winning, web-based research methods product is the place to go for researchers, lecturers and students studying social science subjects.

Search and discover new content and methods

- Methods Map – discover links between methods terms, concepts, people and literature
- Methods Lists – compile selected book and journal content to share or for later review

- Link to suggested related methods and authors
- Expand or refine searches as required
- Read online, print or email full-text content

- View newly commissioned videos with SAGE’s top authors.

Find out more at sageresearchmethods.com

More than 640 research methods books from SAGE

More than 120,000 pages of book, journal and reference content

1,400 qualitative, quantitative and mixed methods terms.