

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:
Mary Kay Jezzini
SAGE Publicist
212-352-1404
publicity@sagepub.com

EXPLORE A TRULY DIVERSE AND FACINATING FIELD OF STUDY WITH SAGE REFERENCE'S PIONEERING NEW ENCYCLOPEDIA OF EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

Los Angeles, London, New Delhi, and Singapore (November 2007) – Addressing the needs of children and adults alike, educational psychology focuses on human learning and development, motivation, measurement and statistics, as well as curriculum and teaching. The educational psychologist studies topics such as aggression, the relationship between poverty and achievement, quantitative methods, and emerging adulthood.

SAGE Reference's highly accessible, new two-volume Encyclopedia of Educational Psychology presents the full range of topics tied together by the theme of how one can best perform in an educational setting, from pre-school through adult education. Designed to open up this far-reaching discipline to a wide audience, this key resource's 275+ expert-written A-to-Z entries are organized, in a helpful Reader's Guide, into key areas such as:

- Classroom Achievement
- Cognitive Development
- Ethnicity, Race, and Culture
- Gender and Gender Development
- Health and Well-Being
- Intelligence and Intellectual Development
- Learning and Memory
- Organizations
- Peers and Peer Influences
- Research Methods and Statistics
- Social Development
- Testing, Measurement, and Evaluation

Clarifying complex issues such as vouchers, early intervention, inclusion, cultural diversity, and the role of athletics in the schools, this unique reference source is a boon for the general reader as well as crucial educational public policy decision makers.

SAGE's Encyclopedia of Educational Psychology will be a welcome addition to every academic and public library providing a valuable resource for students, researchers, and scholars in a variety of disciplines, including psychology, anthropology, education, sociology, public health, school psychology, counseling, history, and philosophy.

Editor Neil J. Salkind is a professor in the Department of Psychology and Research as well as the Department of Human Development and Family Life in Education at the University of Kansas.

SAGE is a leading international publisher of journals, books, and electronic media for academic, educational, and professional markets. Since 1965, SAGE has helped inform and educate a global community of scholars, practitioners, researchers, and students spanning a wide range of subject areas including business, humanities, social sciences, and science, technology and medicine. A privately owned corporation, SAGE has principal offices in Los Angeles, London, New Delhi, and Singapore. www.sagepublications.com

March 2008	ISBN: 978-1-4129-1688-2	Print Price: $350	TWO-VOLUME SET
	E-ISBN: 978-1-4129-6384-8	Electronic Price: $435
For more information call (800)818-7243 or email librarysales@sagepub.com

AUTHORITATIVE | AWARD-WINNING | AVAILABLE ONLINE