SAGE AND PINE FORGE PRESS NOW OFFER
COMPLIMENTARY REVIEW COPIES OF MOST TEXTBOOKS

Los Angeles, London, New Delhi, and Singapore (November 28, 2007) – SAGE, with its origins in publishing primarily academic monographs, has expanded its focus over the past decade to publishing a significant number of core and supplemental textbooks. In recent years, to meet the needs of professors considering using these SAGE textbooks in the classroom, the company has relaxed its inspection copy policy by offering most texts on a complimentary review basis.

Instructors can view all of SAGE’s products at www.sagepub.com to find the perfect match for their course needs. An icon on each book’s page indicates whether the textbook is available on a complimentary review basis or whether (in a few cases, where books have been published primarily for the professional or individual customer) the professor will have 60 days to review the book for possible adoption.

“SAGE is pleased to have satisfied a key need of their audience by providing complimentary review copies of most SAGE textbooks and supplements for instructors considering using them for the classroom,” commented Helen Salmon, SAGE’s Director of Books Marketing.

SAGE’s Customer Care team (1-800-818-7243, 6 am – 5 pm, PT) is available to answer any questions for professors who need assistance.
