SAGE REFERENCE TITLES
ENCYCLOPEIDA OF EDUCATION LAW AND
ENCYCLOPEDIA OF BUSINESS ETHICS AND SOCIETY WIN AWARDS

Los Angeles, London, New Delhi, Singapore and Washington DC (February 10, 2009)—SAGE is pleased to announce that SAGE Reference titles have been honored by both the Reference and User Services Association (RUSA) and its Business Reference and Services Section (BRASS) from the American Library Association (ALA). Both awards were announced at the recent ALA midwinter meeting in Denver.

The Reference and User Services Association chose Encyclopedia of Education Law to be part of its 2009 Outstanding Reference Sources, an award which recognizes the best reference publications for small and medium-sized libraries. The Encyclopedia, edited by Charles J. Russo, is a compendium of information covering the most important issues of education law, including selections of key legal documents that serve as the primary sources for research on education law such as the Constitution and Federal statutes.

BRASS, the Business Reference and Services Section of RUSA, chose the Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society, edited by Robert Kolb, as one of their annual Outstanding Business Reference Sources. This key business resource focuses on the role business plays with regard to the environment in which it exists.

"We're very pleased that RUSA and BRASS have recognized the world-class content of these SAGE encyclopedias," said Rolf Janke, SAGE Reference, Vice President. "We continue to provide libraries with the highest quality reference resources and it's gratifying when that effort is acknowledged by such prestigious organizations in the industry."
