SAGE PUBLICATIONS SIGNS DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT WITH THOMAS NELSON
Canada's students, researchers and professionals will now have more research choices

Thousand Oaks, California, London, United Kingdom, and New Delhi, India (June 2, 2006) – In order to better serve Canada's academic and research community, SAGE Publications has signed an exclusive agreement with Thomson Nelson to distribute SAGE products, including books, encyclopedias, journals and electronic media.

Canada's leading educational publisher and part of The Thomson Corporation (NYSE: TOC; TSX: TOC), Thomson Nelson provides books and online resources for the educational market in Canada. In addition to distributing, Thomson Nelson publishes a wide range of core and supplemental electronic products and maintains more than 30 interactive Web sites. The addition of SAGE's award-winning publications will round out the Thomson Nelson offerings for Canada's research community.

"We know that scholars, practitioners, researchers, and students are looking for materials with quality content," said Lesley Gouldie, Thomson Nelson's SVP Business Development. "SAGE is recognized for its commitment to quality publishing and innovation, and we are looking forward to better serving our customers with this expanded product line."

"There are many benefits to this newly forged alliance between SAGE and Thomson Nelson," said David Horwitz, SAGE Publications' Vice President of Sales. "Thomson Nelson's experienced sales force will help build customer awareness of our products throughout Canada, and Canadian booksellers will enjoy more efficient order fulfillment and processing than we've been able to provide in the past."
