Detailed Contents

Preface xv
Acknowledgments xix
Introduction 1

PART I: CONTEXT AND CHALLENGES

1. The Public Service Heritage: Context, Continuity, and Change 11
   A Day in the Life of Maria Hernandez 12
   The Structure and Role of Human Resource Departments 15
   A Dynamic Environment and Key Principles 16
      Work Environment 16
   Human Resource Management Principles 21
   Historical and Institutional Context 25
      Tides of Reform 25
      Scientific Management 25
      War on Waste 26
      Watchful Eye 26
      Liberation Management 27
      Tide Philosophies in Legislation 28
      Institutional Context 30
   Reforming Government in the Clinton, Bush, and Obama Years 31
      Federal Level 31
      State and Local Levels 39
   Values, Ethics, and Management 41
      Values 41
      Ethics 44
      Management 45
   Summary and Conclusion 45

Key Terms 46
Exercises 47
Notes 48
References 48
2. Legal Rights and Responsibilities: Laws Governing the Workplace 53

Sally Gertz

The Foundations of Employment Law 56
The Employment Relationship 59
Balancing Employer, Employee, and Societal Interests 60
   Procedural Due Process and the Taking of Property and Liberty 60
   Adverse Action 61
   Freedom of Speech 63
   Political Activity and Affiliation 64
   Compensation 66
   Health and Safety 67
   Individual Liability 69
Privacy Issues 70
   Searches 70
   Testing for Alcohol or Drug Use 70
   Grooming and Dress Codes 71
Preemployment Investigations: Truth, Personality, Health,
   Credit, and Criminal Records 74
   Postemployment References 76
Discrimination 77
   Antidiscrimination Laws 77
   Intentional Discrimination 78
   Retaliation 80
   Harassment 83
   Affirmative Action 84
   Unintentional Discrimination 85
   Age 86
   Disability 86
   Religion 87
   Preventing and Responding to Discrimination Claims 88
Summary and Conclusion 89

Key Terms 90
Exercises 91
Notes 92
References 93

PART II: PROCESSES AND SKILLS: FROM START TO FINISH

3. Recruitment: From Passive Posting to Social Media Networking 97

Factors in Recruitment: Employer and Applicant Perspectives 100
   High-Quality Recruitment: An Employer’s Perspective 100
   High Quality Recruitment: An Applicant’s Perspective 102
4. Selection: From Civil Service Commissions to Decentralized Decision Making 131

The Bases and Origin of Selection 134
Principles Underlying Selection 134
The History of Selection: Six Eras 140
Criteria in Selecting Selection Tests 145
Selection: Four Screening Phases 147
Initial Reviewing and Testing 148
Education and Experience Evaluations 148
Letters of Recommendation 149
Biodata—Matching Past Experiences With Current Job Requirements 150
General Aptitude and Trait Tests 150
Performance Tests for Specific Jobs 151
Other Considerations Regarding Reviewing and Testing 152
Interviewing and Reference Checks: Narrowing the Pool 154
General Considerations for Those Conducting Interviews 156
Unstructured Interview After or In Addition to Structured Interviews 160
Reference Checks 160
Choosing and Negotiation 161
Postoffer and Hiring Issues 162
Summary and Conclusion 164
Key Terms 165
Exercises 166
Appendix: The Professional Commitment Statement for Job Seekers 168
Notes 171
References 172

General Principles of Learning 344
  Motivation 344
  Relevance and Transference 345
  Repetition and Active Participation 346
  Underlying Principles 347
  Feedback and Positive Reinforcement 347
Training Strategies 349
  On-the-Job Training 349
  Mentoring 350
  In-House Seminars 351
  Web-Based Learning 355
  Professional Conference Attendance 355
  Simulation and Role-Playing 356
  Formal Education 357
Organizational Learning Strategies 358
  Idea Development 359
  Leaders’ Thinking 361
  Managing Changes 362
Application: Ethics Training 363
Summary and Conclusion 366

Key Terms 367
Exercises 368

Appendix: Needs Assessment and Evaluation for Training 369
Notes 372
References 373

10. Appraisal: A Process in Search of a Technique 373

Evolution 379
Types of Appraisal 380