The journal is financially supported by the Spanish Academy of Management (ACEDE), and therefore does not charge an Article Processing Charge for Open Access publication

For general information on open access at Sage please visit the Open Access page.

Preparing your manuscript for submission

Your article must be within the scope of the journal and be of sufficient quality. If not, it will not be reviewed. Please read the journal's Aims and Scope to see if your article is appropriate.

The manuscript must be your original work, you must have the rights to the work, and you must have obtained and be able to supply all necessary permissions for the reproduction of any copyright works not owned by you, including figures, illustrations, tables, lengthy quotations, or other material previously published elsewhere.

Article types

- Regular Papers

These manuscripts are grounded in strong theoretical foundations and supported by empirical evidence. BRQ encourages theoretical diversity and methodological plurality, with the primary requirement being to meet the highest analytical standards. While we typically publish empirical research, theoretical contributions are also welcome.

- Review Papers

Submissions in this section should present authoritative literature reviews, offering an updated and critical discussion of the state of the art. Please note that meta-analyses are classified as regular papers rather than review articles. Be sure to check the specific format, deadlines, and submission requirements for this section on the Review section of the journal webpage.

- Perspectives (Essays)

This section publishes essays by world-leading experts to provide forward-looking perspectives, highlighting critical research areas that require further exploration. The focus is on identifying high-impact research questions that remain under-explored. Authors are encouraged to check the additional formal requirements for this section on the Perspectives section of the journal webpage.

- Methodological Insights

We welcome articles that introduce novel methods or substantial improvements to existing techniques, particularly those with immediate practical relevance for management researchers. Submissions that address previously misapplied methods or offer refinements using the latest advancements are highly encouraged.

Format Guidelines:

Regular manuscripts and review papers should not exceed 40 double-spaced, correctly formatted pages, including the text, tables, figures, endnotes, references, and non-supplementary appendices. BRQ reserves the right to return excessively long submissions. Essays and methodological insights should preferably be between 20 and 30 pages, including all components. Please, see the “Preparing your manuscript” section for details regarding format requirements.

Reporting guidelines

Your manuscript must follow the relevant EQUATOR Network reporting guidelines, depending on the type of study. The EQUATOR wizard can help identify the appropriate guideline. You will need to upload the appropriate checklist with your submission.

Other resources can be found at NLM's Research Reporting Guidelines and Initiatives.

If your research involves animals, you will be asked to confirm that you have carefully read and adhered to the ARRIVE guidelines.

Formatting your manuscript

Manuscript file

Manuscripts should be typed in a 12-point font and double spaced. Every page in the manuscript should contain a short running head. Pages should have standard measures (21.0 by 29.7 centimetres or 8.5 by 11 inches), and include regular 2,54 centimetres (1 inch) margins. Manuscript length should be usually limited to 40 pages inclusive of references, non-supplementary appendices, tables, and figures. Manuscripts that do not align with these guidelines will be returned to the authors without review.

The preferred format for your manuscript is MSword. You do not need to follow a template, but please ensure your heading levels are clear, and the sections clearly defined.

The LaTeX files are also accepted. A LaTeX template is available on the Sage Journal Author Gateway.

Your article title, keywords, and abstract all contribute to its position in search engine results, directly affecting the number of people who see your work. For details of what you can do to influence this, visit How to help readers find your article online.

Title

Your manuscript's title should be concise, descriptive, unambiguous, accurate, and reflect the precise contents of the manuscript. A descriptive title that includes the topic of the manuscript makes an article more findable in the major indexing services.

Abstract

You do NOT need to include an abstract in your manuscript file; however, you will be prompted to provide an abstract in the online submission form during the manuscript submission process. Please include an unstructured abstract of 150 words that concisely states the purpose of the research, major findings, and conclusions.

Keywords

You do NOT need to include key words in your manuscript file; however, you will be prompted to provide a minimum of 3-5 keywords in the online submission form during the manuscript submission process. Keywords should be as specific as possible to the research topic.

Artwork, figures, and other graphics

For guidance on the preparation of illustrations, pictures, and graphs in electronic format, please read Sage's artwork guidelines.

Figures supplied in color will appear in color online.

Please ensure that you have obtained any necessary permission from copyright holders for reproducing any illustrations, tables, figures, or lengthy quotations previously published elsewhere. For further information including guidance on fair dealing for criticism and review, please see the Frequently Asked Questions page on the Sage Journal Author Gateway.

Tables and figures Useful tables and figures do not duplicate the text; they supplement and clarify it. Because tables and figures are considerably more expensive to prepare for publication than text, please carefully consider what they add to your manuscript's impact.

Place each table or figure on a separate page. Number tables and figures consecutively (one series for tables, one for figures) from the beginning to the end of the article.

Table checklist:

- Center the word Table (in title case) and the number of the table (Arabic numeral) at the top of the page.
Center the title (in title case) under the table heading.
Report the results of only one type of analysis in each table.
- Range headings across the top of the table. Do not add new headings in the body of the table.
- Do not use abbreviations or computer code names for variables. Also, please do not use table notes. Use the same names you used in the text.
- Use only two decimal places for statistics (except p-values, see next).
- All reported statistical estimates (e.g., regression weights, mean differences) must have corresponding standard errors, and inferential statistics (t, z, or F, depending on which is most pertinent) with precise p values reported (e.g., $p = .072$, rounded to the third decimal place) rather than in star notation (*) or statistical significant cutoff bands (e.g., $p < .05$).

- For most articles, the first table should report descriptive statistics, including means, standard deviations, and a full correlation matrix. Correlations should fill the lower-left corner of the page.
- To distinguish some numerals (for instance, to indicate which loadings define a factor), boldface type can be used. Do not use this option when other conventions, such as footnotes, are sufficient.
- Use plain type in capital and small letters—no italic or bold, except as noted above.
- Designate a general footnote that explains the whole table or a column, row, or item with a superscript small letter (a, b, c).

- Center the word Figure (in title case) and the number of the figure (Arabic numeral) at the top of the page.
- Center the title (in title case) under the Figure heading.
- Spell out all words in the body of the figure.
- Use the same variable names you used in the tables and text.
- Avoid stacking words or numbers (listing characters vertically).
- Make sure lines and graphic elements are crisp and clear.
- Use letters for footnotes, as in tables.

Title page

To ensure fair and anonymous peer review, your manuscript must be fully anonymized. Please ensure any identifying information is removed from the main manuscript document and included on the Title Page instead. Do not include any author names in the manuscript file name and remove names from headers and footers. This version of the manuscript will be sent to the peer reviewers. The Title Page will not be sent to peer reviewers. See the Sage Journal Author Gateway for detailed guidance on making an anonymous submission.

The Title Page should include:

- Article title
- The full list of authors including names and affiliations of each
 - The listed affiliation should be the institution where the research was conducted. If an author has moved to a new institution since completing the research, the new affiliation can be included in a note at the end of the manuscript – please indicate this on the title page.
 - All persons eligible for authorship must be included at the time of submission (please see the authorship section for more information).
- Contact information for the corresponding author: name, institutional address, phone, email
- Acknowledgments section
- Declaration of conflicting interest
- Funding statement
- Ethical approval and informed consent statements

- Data availability statement
- Any other identifying information related to the authors and/or their institutions, funders, approval committees, etc, that might compromise anonymity.

Acknowledgements

Do not place acknowledgements into the manuscript, as these could compromise the blind review process. If authors wish to acknowledge the contribution of individuals or institutions that are not authors, they are encouraged to do so. At the time of submission the website offers a place in which acknowledgements can be directly typed. Furthermore, you are invited to include that info in the title page. It is best practice to obtain consent from non-author contributors who you are acknowledging in your manuscript.

Writing assistance and third party submissions: if you have received any writing or editing assistance from a third-party, for example a specialist communications company, this must be clearly stated in the Acknowledgements section and in the covering letter. Please see the Sage Author Gateway for what information to include in your Acknowledgements section. If your submission is being made on your behalf by someone who is not listed as an author, for example the third-party who provided writing/editing assistance, you must state this in the Acknowledgements and also in your covering letter. Please note that the journal editor reserves the right to not consider submissions made by a third party rather than by the author/s themselves.

Statements and declarations

To ensure proper anonymization, please include a section with the heading 'Statements and Declarations' on your title page, after the Acknowledgements section [and Author Contributions section if applicable] including each of the sub-headings listed below. If a declaration is not applicable to your submission, you must still include the heading and state 'Not applicable' underneath. Please note that you may be asked to justify why a declaration was not applicable to your submission by the Editorial Office. This information will be added to the end of your published paper.

Ethical considerations

Please include your ethics approval statements under this heading, even if you have already included ethics approval information in your methods section. If ethical approval was not required, you need to explicitly state this. You can find information on what to say in your ethical statements as well as example statements on our Publication ethics and research integrity policies page.

All papers reporting studies involving human participants, human data or human tissue must state that the relevant Ethics Committee or Institutional Review Board approved the study, or waived the requirement for approval, providing the full name and institution of the review committee in addition to the approval number. If applicable, please also include this information in the Methods section of your manuscript.

A submitted manuscript should not be under review for publication in another outlet (e.g., book chapter, journal) while it is under review at BRQ. However, BRQ does accept submissions of papers that have been accepted for publication in a shortened form in Best Papers Proceedings (or similar). Authors should also use the cover letter to disclose their papers published in other journals and under review that are related to the current submission. Please, describe in detail in your cover letter the precise nature of the overlap.

BRQ acknowledges the increasing use of artificial intelligence (AI) in academic research and writing. Please check the Sage Artificial Intelligence Policy for any doubts here. While AI may significantly aid the research process, authors must take full responsibility for their manuscripts.

Consent to participate

Please include any participant consent information under this heading and state whether informed consent to participate was written or verbal. If the requirement for informed consent to participate has been waived by the relevant Ethics Committee or Institutional Review Board (i.e. where it has been deemed that consent would be impossible or impracticable to obtain), please state this. If this is not applicable to your manuscript, please state 'Not applicable' in this section. More information and example statements can be found on our Publication ethics and research integrity policies page.

Consent for publication

Submissions containing any data from an individual person (including individual details, images or videos) must include a statement confirming that informed consent for publication was provided by the participant(s) or a legally authorized representative. Non-essential identifying details should be omitted. Please do not submit the participant's actual written informed consent with your article, as this in itself breaches the patient's confidentiality. The Journal requests that you confirm to us, in writing, that you have obtained written informed consent to publish but the written consent itself should be held by the authors/investigators themselves, for example in a patient's hospital record. The confirmatory letter may be uploaded with your submission as a separate file in addition to the statement confirming that consent to publish was obtained within the manuscript text. If this is not applicable to your manuscript, please state 'Not applicable' in this section.

Declaration of conflicting interest

The journal requires a declaration of conflicting interests from all authors so that a statement can be included in your article. For guidance on conflict of interest statements, see our policy on conflicting interest declarations and the ICMJE recommendations.

If no conflict exists, your statement should read: 'The author(s) declared no potential conflicts of interest with respect to the research, authorship, and/or publication of this article'.

Funding statement

All articles need to include a funding statement, under a separate heading, even if you did not receive funding. You'll find guidance and examples on our Funding page.

Data availability

The Journal is committed to facilitating openness, transparency and reproducibility of research, and has the following research data sharing policy. For more information, including FAQs please visit the Sage Research Data policy pages.

Subject to appropriate ethical and legal considerations, authors are encouraged to:

- Share your research data in a relevant public data repository
- Include a data availability statement linking to your data. If it is not possible to share your data, use the statement to confirm why it cannot be shared.
- Cite this data in your research

Reference style, citations and appendices

Citations

Giving proper credit to the sources of original ideas and previous work is an important aspect of good scholarship. Inappropriate or inaccurate citations do not do justice to the authors cited and can be misleading to readers.

A tendency and a desire to cite one's own previous or current work is understandable. However, excessive use of self-citations is frowned upon. When submitting your manuscript for publication consideration, use self-citations cautiously. Minimize references that would reveal the manuscript's authorship. Doing this is important for protecting the double-blind review process.

Citations should be made in the text by enclosing the cited authors' names and the year of the work cited in parentheses. The journal follows the APA reference style. View the APA guidelines to ensure your manuscript conforms. Every in-text citation must have a corresponding citation in the reference list and vice versa. Corresponding citations must have identical spelling and year. Citations to online first versions of manuscripts (manuscripts already accepted after a review process) are completely ok; however, citation to working papers (without review process) are generally discouraged.

References

Include an alphabetically ordered list of the works you have cited in your article. This list should begin on a separate page headed REFERENCES. As this is a major heading, the word "REFERENCES" should be centered, in all capital letters, and bold-faced.

Appendices

Non-supplementary appendices present lengthy but essential methodological details. Presentation should be concise but not abbreviated. Each appendix should be treated as a major heading. The title of each appendix should be typed in all capital letters, centered, and bold-faced. Multiple appendices are APPENDIX A, APPENDIX B, etc. A single appendix does not require a letter.

Online Supplement / Online Appendix

Supplements and online appendices (i.e. appendices that are not to appear as part of the main article) should be uploaded as "Supplemental Material" (separate files in the submission process).

Label the online supplement as such so it can be easily identified. Upload the online supplement as a separate file and designate it as the main document to appear at the end of the paper.

Submitting your manuscript

As part of the submission process you will need to confirm that this is your original work, that you have the rights in the work, that this is for first publication in this journal, that it is not being considered for/has not already been published elsewhere, and that you have obtained and can supply all necessary permissions for the reproduction of any copyright works not owned by you.

Please see our guidelines on prior publication and note that the journal may accept submissions of manuscripts that have been posted on preprint servers.

Preprints

The journal will consider submissions of manuscripts that have been posted on preprint servers.

Please enter the preprint DOI in the designated field when submitting your manuscript. We advise that you inform the Journal Editorial office about your posted preprint at submission.

Note that you should not post an updated version of your manuscript on a preprint server while it is being peer reviewed.

Learn more about our preprint policy.

Submission site

Submit your manuscript online via Sage Track.

IMPORTANT: Please check whether you already have an account in Sage Track before trying to create a new one. If you have reviewed or authored for the journal in the past year it is likely that you will have had an account created. For further guidance on submitting your manuscript online please visit ScholarOne Online Help.

Manuscripts should only be submitted with the consent of all contributing authors. The individual responsible for submitting the manuscript should carefully check that all those whose work contributed to the manuscript are listed as authors.

Ensure you upload all relevant manuscript files, including any additional supplemental files (including reporting guidelines where relevant).

Authorship

Please view our authorship policies, which includes information on criteria for authorship, who should be the corresponding author and more.

Please note that AI chatbots, for example ChatGPT, should not be listed as authors. For more information see the policy on Use of ChatGPT and generative AI tools.

Files required for your submission (important):

- Cover letter. We encourage authors to submit a cover letter to the BRQ Editors alongside their manuscript. The cover letter should highlight the key contributions of the paper and explain how it aligns with the journal's focus on advancing knowledge in business and management disciplines, particularly with an emphasis on both academic contribution, originality, and practical impact.

Authors should also include a brief CV summary for each contributor as a second page of the cover letter. This may help us better identify the most appropriate editors and reviewers to evaluate the submission.

- Title Page The Title Page file will NOT be sent to peer reviewers. The Title Page should include:
 - Article title
 - The full list of authors including names and affiliations of each (all persons eligible for authorship must be included at the time of submission).
 - Contact information for the corresponding author: name, institutional address, phone, email
 - Acknowledgments section (if any)
 - Declaration of conflicting interest (if any)
 - Funding statement (if any)
 - Ethical approval and informed consent statements (if necessary because the nature of the paper)
 - Data availability statement (if any)

During the electronic submission process, there will be specific fields for entering a manuscript title as well as an abstract (limit 250 words). The abstract should NOT be included in the main document of the manuscript. Please, do NOT include a title page with your main manuscript document.

- Your manuscript/main document: To ensure fair and anonymous peer review, your manuscript must be fully anonymized. Please ensure any identifying information is removed from the main manuscript document (e.g. do not include any author names in the manuscript file name and remove names from headers and footers). This version of the manuscript will be sent to the peer reviewers.

The principal divisions of the manuscript should appear in the following order: body of the article, references, footnotes (if any), tables, figures, and non-supplementary appendices. Number all pages, including those with references, non-supplementary appendices, tables, and figures. Group these, in the order just given, on separate pages at the end of the article.

The manuscript (body, references, footnotes, table, figures and non-supplementary appendices) will be uploaded to the BRQ: Business Research Quarterly as a single document called "main document" during the electronic submission process.

Regarding tables, figures and images:

- All tables and figures must be numbered consecutively in the order in which they appear in the text – they will appear in the published article in the order they are numbered.
- Figure resolution is 300dpi. More information on figure/image preparation can be found here.
- Supplemental material. This journal can host additional materials online (e.g. datasets, podcasts, videos, images, etc) alongside the full-text of the article. Your supplemental material must be one of our accepted file types. For that list and more information please refer to our guidelines on submitting supplemental files.

Other information required for submission

- ORCID ID of the submitting author.
 - It is strongly encouraged that all co-authors ensure their ORCID IDs are linked to their accounts in the submission system prior to article acceptance, as this is the only way to have their ORCID ID present on the published article. ORCID IDs cannot be added to manuscripts after acceptance/publication. Please note that each co-author must log in to the submission system to add their own ORCID ID to their account. To add an ORCID ID, edit your account, click the link when prompted, and sign into your ORCID account to validate your ID. You will then be redirected back to the submission system and your ORCID ID will become part of your accepted publication's metadata.
 - Please create an ORCID ID if you do not already have one or visit our ORCID homepage to learn more.
- Complete list of authors, with their institutional affiliations.
 - The author information you enter at submission must exactly match what is included on your manuscript and/or title page, including full names, academic affiliations, and corresponding author contact details.
 - The listed affiliation should be the institution where the research was conducted. If an author has moved to a new institution since completing the research, the new affiliation can be included in a note at the end of the manuscript.
 - All listed authors must meet the criteria for authorship (above).
 - All persons eligible for authorship must be included at the time of submission.
 - All authors must have given consent for the manuscript to be submitted in its current form.
- Keywords: During submission, you may be asked to select or enter keywords for your manuscript. These keywords are used to match appropriate reviewers to your manuscript.
- The number of figures, tables, and words in your manuscript.
- Funder information: Name, grant/award number.
- You may be required to enter your declaration of conflicting interest as part of the submission process, in addition to listing it on your manuscript and/or title page. Please have it on hand.
- If you have posted your manuscript to a preprint server, you will be asked to supply the DOI (this does not prohibit submission, but no changes should be made to the preprint version while your manuscript is under evaluation in this journal). Please see our guidelines on prior publication. If the article is accepted for publication, the author may re-use their work according to the journal's author archiving policy. If your manuscript is accepted, you must include a link in your preprint to the final version of your published article.

Peer review policy

The following summary describes the peer review process for this journal:

Identity transparency: Double anonymised

Reviewer interacts with: Editor

Review information published: None

Your manuscript will undergo an initial evaluation. If it does not conform to the requirements laid out in these guidelines, it will be returned to you for amendments prior to peer review. Manuscripts may be desk rejected without peer review at this point if they are out of scope for the journal or otherwise unsuitable.

After passing the initial evaluation, your manuscript will then be peer reviewed. You can log in at any time to check the status of your manuscript. We will notify you when a decision has been reached.

The journal's policy is to have manuscripts reviewed by two expert reviewers. BRQ Business Research Quarterly utilizes a double-anonymize peer review process in which the reviewer and authors' names and information are withheld from the other. All manuscripts are reviewed as rapidly as possible, while maintaining rigor. Reviewers make comments to the author and recommendations to the relevant Associate Editor. The Editor-in-Chief makes the final decision.

To ensure the integrity of the peer review process we assign reviewers and cannot accept author recommendations.

All manuscripts are reviewed as rapidly as possible, while maintaining rigor. Reviewers make comments to the author and recommendations to the Editor who then makes the final decision on all manuscripts, including those appearing in a special issue or special collection. The Editor or members of the Editorial Board may occasionally submit their own manuscripts for possible publication in the Journal. In these cases, the peer review process will be managed by alternative members of the Board and the submitting Editor/Board member will have no involvement in the decision-making process.

As a COPE member we engage with multiple forms of post-publication discussion in line with wider guidance from Sage: Commentaries, Critiques and Responses.

You can view our complaints and appeals policy here.

Read Sage's complete peer review policy.

Plagiarism

The journal and Sage take issues of copyright infringement, plagiarism or other breaches of best practice in publication very seriously. Please read Sage's complete policy on plagiarism and the actions we may take.

After acceptance

After acceptance you will receive instructions via email inviting you to complete the Open Access process. This will include signing the appropriate Creative Commons license and, where applicable, paying the Article Processing Charge (APC) or assigning a bill payer. Once the APC has been processed, your article will be prepared for publication and can appear online within an average of 30 days. Please note that, where an APC is applicable, production work cannot be completed on your manuscript until payment has been received.

Contributor's Publishing Agreement

Before publication we require the author as the rights holder to sign a Journal Contributor's Publishing Agreement. The journal publishes manuscripts under Creative Commons licenses. The standard license for the journal is Creative Commons by Attribution Non-Commercial (CC BY-NC), which allows others to re-use the work without permission as long as the work is properly referenced and the use is non-commercial. For more information, you are advised to visit Sage's OA licenses page. Alternative license arrangements are available at the author's request (e.g. to meet particular funder mandates).

Preprints

If your manuscript was posted on a preprint server prior to acceptance, you must include a link in your preprint to the final published version of your published article.

Production

Your Sage Production Editor will keep you informed as to your article's progress throughout the production process. Proofs will be made available to the corresponding author via our editing portal, Sage Edit, or by email, and should be returned promptly to avoid delaying publication. Authors are reminded to check their proofs carefully to confirm that all author information, including names, affiliations, sequence, and contact details are correct, and that Funding and Conflict of Interest statements, if any, are accurate. This is the final opportunity to make changes to your manuscript. Further corrections will not be possible after publication. Changes to the author list are not permitted at this stage.

Publication

One of the many benefits of publishing your research in an open access journal is the speed to publication. With no page count constraints, your article will be published online in a fully citable form with a DOI number as soon as it has completed the production process. At this time it will be completely free to view and download for all.

OnlineFirst publication: This enables us to publish final articles online immediately, without waiting for assignment to a future issue of the Journal. This usually significantly reduces publication lead time. Visit the Sage Journals help page for more details, including how to cite OnlineFirst articles.

Promoting your article

Publication is not the end of the process. Between us, we can ensure that your article is found, read, downloaded and cited as widely as possible. Many of the most effective tactics are those you can do quickly and easily to your network of contacts and peers. Visit the Promote Your Article page on the Sage Journal Author Gateway for numerous resources to help you promote your work.

Further resources

The Sage Journal Author Gateway has some general advice on how to get published, plus links to further resources. Sage Author Services also offers authors a variety of ways to improve and enhance your article including English language editing, plagiarism detection, and video abstract and infographic preparation.
