Group & Organization Management:

Call for Proposals for the 2013 Special Issue

GOM (Impact Factor of 2.415), peer-reviewed and published bi-monthly, publishes the work of scholars and professionals who extend management and organization theory and address the implications for practitioners. Innovation, conceptual sophistication, methodological rigor, and cutting-edge scholarship are the driving principles.

We invite proposals for a special issue for 2013. The SI should focus on topics that fall within the scope of the journal.

Proposals should include the following:

• A draft Call for Papers. Length of the proposal should be about 1000 words.

• A timeline beginning with an initial Call for Papers, allowing for initial submission and revise & resubmit processing, and concluding with final papers being completed by mid 2013

• Qualifications of guest editors, including previous editorial experience (as well as contact information, including phone, e-mail and postal addresses, of guest editors).

The Deadline for the Call for Special Issue Proposals is: 15 Sept 2011.

E-mail proposals to the Editor: yehuda.baruch@rouenbs.fr

Recent SI includes:

Gossip in Organizations. Guest Editors: Grant Michelson, Audencia Nantes School of Management, Nantes, France; Ad van Iterson, Maastricht University, Maastricht, Netherlands; and Kathryn Waddington, City University, London, UK

Attributional Influences in Organizations. Guest Editors: Marie Dasborough, University of Miami; Paul Harvey, University of New Hampshire; and Mark Martinko, Florida State University

Developing Organizational Identity and Identification Research. Guest Editors: Hongwei He, University of Warwick & Andrew D. Brown, University of Warwick