

Contents

INTRODUCTION	ix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xix
ABOUT THE AUTHOR	xxi
1. Work Before Industrialization	1
The Oldest and Longest Lasting Mode of Life and Work	1
Gathering-and-Hunting Societies in the Modern World	2
The Working Lives of Gatherer-Hunters	4
The Agricultural Revolution	6
Agricultural Labor and Cultural Change	8
Artisan Work	10
Time and Work	12
Protestantism and the Rise of Capitalism	13
2. The Organization of Work in Preindustrial Times	19
Traditional Societies and the Organization of Work	19
The Family as a Basis of Work Organization	21
Slavery	23
Caste and Occupation	28
The Guilds	29
Apprenticeship	32
An Assessment of Guild Organization	33
3. Industrialization and Its Consequences	39
The Industrial Revolution	39
Capitalism and Market Economies	41
Wages and Working Conditions in the Industrial Revolution	43
Women in the Industrial Revolution	45
Industrialization and Social Protest	47
Making Management “Scientific”	47
The Assembly Line	51
A Postindustrial Revolution?	54

4. Bureaucratic Organization	59
The Rise of Bureaucratic Organization	59
The Elements of Bureaucratic Organization	61
Where Bureaucracy Works and Where It Doesn't	65
Bureaucratic Organization, Work, and the Worker	67
Alternatives to Bureaucracy	70
5. Technology and Work	77
Defining Technology	77
Technological Unemployment	80
Developing New Skills	82
Technology and Managerial Authority	83
Work, Skill, and Today's Technologies	86
Telework	87
Technology and Globalization	90
6. Globalization	95
Governments and Globalization	97
Multinational Corporations and Globalized Production	99
The Economic Benefits of Foreign Trade	100
Workers Abroad	102
Workers at Home	104
Globalization and Job Creation	105
Immigration	106
Governmental Policies and Immigration	107
7. Getting a Job	113
The Economics of the Job Market	113
Minimum-Wage Laws	118
Jobs, Human Capital, and Credentials	120
Networks and Their Significance	126
8. Workplace Culture and Socialization	133
The Significance of Workplace Cultures	133
Socialization Into a Culture	135
Socialization as an Ongoing Process	136
Socialization and Identity	137
Occupational and Organizational Heroes	139
Socialization in Different Occupational Realms	141
Rites of Passage	143
Organizations and Subcultures	145
Supportive Workplace Subcultures	147
Deviant Subcultures	148
Socialization, Careers, and Strain	149
9. Professions and Professionalization	153
The Checklist Approach to the Professions	153
The Professional Continuum	156

Attaining Professional Status	158
Professionalization as a Means of Control	159
Professionals in Organizations	161
Today's Challenges to the Professions	163
Resource Control and Professional Autonomy:
The Case of Medicine	166
Diversity and Professional Status	167
10. Who Gets What?	173
The Determination of Wages and Salaries: Market
Economics Once Again	173
The Widening Income Gap	175
Why Has Income Inequality Increased?	179
Unemployment and Income	180
Income Distribution in a Changing Economy	181
Computerization and Income Inequality	181
Globalization, Employment, and Income	182
Unions and Workers' Incomes	183
Immigration and Income	186
Occupational Prestige	188
11. Life on the Job I: Work and Its Rewards	195
Employment and Unemployment	195
The Personal Consequences of Unemployment	197
Varieties of Employment	199
Work Without Pay	202
The Workplace as School	203
Job Training and Employment Opportunities	204
Work and Social Interaction	205
Social Relationships and Job Performance	208
The Intrinsic Satisfactions of Work	209
12. Life on the Job II: The Perils and Pressures of Work	215
Work May Be Hazardous to Your Health	215
Stress at Work	217
Jobs, Secure and Insecure	219
Sexual Harassment at Work	220
Greedy Institutions	221
Alienated Labor	223
Manifestations of Discontent	225
Responses to On-the-Job Alienation	226
Job Satisfaction and Dissatisfaction Today	227
The Elusive Search for Job Satisfaction	228
13. Diversity in the Workplace	233
Race, Ethnicity, and Hiring Practices	233
Women in the Workforce	237

Discrimination, Occupational Segregation, and Pay	240
Getting Ahead	244
Legal Remedies for Discrimination and Occupational Segregation	246
Comparable Worth Policies for the Workplace	248
14. Work Roles and Life Roles	253
The Separation of Work and Residence	253
Working Hours	254
Paid Work and Housework	260
Couples, Families, and Careers	263
Reconciling Work Roles and Life Roles	265
15. Conclusion: Work Today and Tomorrow	273
Technology, Work, and Occupations	273
Making Globalization and Technological Change More Equitable	274
Work and Demographic Change	275
Ethnicity, Gender, and Work	276
Women, Work, and Families	277
Closing the Income Gap	278
The Healthcare Morass	281
The Fate of the Professions	281
Organizations for the 21st Century	282
Workers and Jobs for the Future	283
GLOSSARY	287
CREDITS	291
INDEX	292