Detailed Contents

Foreword xvii
Preface xix
Acknowledgments xxii

Section I. The Philosophical and Ideological Underpinnings of Corrections 1

Introduction: What Is Corrections? 1
The Theoretical Underpinnings of Corrections 2
A Short History of Correctional Punishment 2
The Emergence of the Classical School 3
The Emergence of Positivism: Should Punishment Fit the Offender or the Offense? 4
The Function of Punishment 4
Philosophies of and Justifications for Punishment 5
Is the United States Hard or Soft on Crime? 10
Summary 12
Key Terms 13
Discussion Questions 13
Useful Internet Sites 13

Section II. A History of Corrections 14

Introduction: The Evolving Practice of Corrections 14
Themes: Truths That Underlie Correctional Practice 15
Early Punishments in Westernized Countries 16
The First Jails 16
Galley Slavery 17
Poverty and Bridewells, Debtors’ Prisons, and Houses of Correction 18
Transportation 18
Enlightenment 19
Paradigm Shift 19
John Howard 19
Bentham and Beccaria 20
William Penn 21
Colonial Jails and Prisons 22
Early Modern Prisons and the Pennsylvania and New York Models 23
Table of Contents

- The Walnut Street Jail
- The Pennsylvania Prison Model (Separate System)
- Auburn, Sing Sing, and the New York (Congregate) System
- Prisons: The Shame of Another Generation
- Dorothea Dix’s Evaluation of Prisons and Jails
- The Failure of Reform Is Noted
- The Renewed Promise of Reform
- The 1870 American Prison Congress
- The Elmira Reformatory
- The Creation of Probation and Parole
- Southern and Northern Prisons and the Contract and Lease Systems, and Industrial Prisons
- Correctional Institutions or Warehouse Prisons?
- Historical Research
- Summary
- Key Terms
- Discussion Questions
- Useful Internet Sites

READINGS

1. An Historical Outline of the Penitentiary System
   Gustave de Beaumont and Alexis de Tocqueville
   Examines the state of the American prison system in the 1800s and compares it with the French system.

2. The World’s Most Influential Prison: Success or Failure?
   Norman Johnston
   Discusses the history and development of Philadelphia’s Eastern State Penitentiary.

3. “Much and Unfortunately Neglected”: Women in Early and Mid-Nineteenth-Century Prisons
   Nicole Hahn Rafter
   Examines the treatment of women in early American prisons.

Section III. Jails and the Inmate Experience

- Introduction: The Community Institution
- Jail Types
- Jail Inmates and Their Processing
- Overcrowding
- Gender, Juveniles, Race, and Ethnicity
- The Poor and the Mentally Ill
- Medical Problems
- Substance Abuse and Jails
- Suicides and Sexual Violence in Jails
  - Suicides
  - Sexual Violence
- Innovations in Jails
  - New Generation/Podular Direct Supervision Jails
  - Community Jails
Section IV. Sentencing: The Application of Punishment

Introduction: The Scope of Sentencing
Types of Sentences: Indeterminate, Determinate, and Mandatory
Habitual Offender Statutes
Other Types of Sentences: Shock, Split, and Non-Custodial Sentences
Drug Courts
Sentencing Disparity, Legitimate and Illegitimate
Structuring Sentencing: The Presentence Investigation Report
PSI Controversies
Structured Sentencing: Sentencing Guidelines
The Future of Sentencing Guidelines
Summary
Key Terms
Discussion Questions
Useful Internet Sites

READINGS
7. Cracked Justice
Nicole D. Porter and Valerie Wright
Provides an overview of the controversy involving the disparity in crack and powder cocaine sentences.
8. Projecting Felony Intakes to the Justice System
Pablo E. Martinez
Examines how corrections administrators can plan for increases (and potential decreases) in inmate population levels.
Section V. Probation and Community Corrections

Introduction: The Origins of Probation
Why Do We Need Community Corrections?
Probation Officer Role and
   Models of Probation Supervision
Community Corrections Assessment Tools
Engaging the Community to Prevent Recidivism
Intermediate Sanctions
   Intensive Supervision Probation
   Work Release
   Shock Probation/Parole and Boot Camps
Legal Issues in Probation and Parole
Summary
Key Terms
Discussion Questions
Useful Internet Sites

READINGS

9. Opening the Manager’s Door: State Probation Officer Stress and Perceptions of Participation in Workplace Decision Making
Risdon N. Slate, Terry L. Wells, and W. Wesley Johnson
Examines probation officers’ attitudes and their work and the amount of stress involved in the job.

10. The “Effectiveness” of Differential Supervision
Patricia M. Harris, Raymond Gingerich, and Tiffany A. Whittaker
Examines several different forms of community supervision.

11. Examining the Effectiveness of Boot Camps: A Randomized Experiment With a Long-Term Follow Up
Jean Bottcher and Michael E. Ezell
Examines the impact of boot camps on recidivism.

Section VI. Prisons and the Inmate Experience

Introduction: The State of Prisons
Prison Organizations
   Classification
   Prison Types and Levels
Prison Value?
Attributes of the Prison That Shape the Experience
   Total Institutions, Mortification, Importation, Prisonization
   Pains of Imprisonment
The Prison Subculture
Gangs and the Prison Subculture
Violence
   Why Prisons Are Violent
   The Amount of Violence
   Sexual Assaults
Section VII. Parole and Prisoner Reentry 270
Brief History of Parole 270
The Modern Parole System 271
Parolee Recidivism 274
What Goes In Must Come Out: Prisoner Reentry Into the Community 276
The Impact of Imprisonment and Reentry on Communities 277
What Makes for a Successful Reentry? 278
Determining Parole “Success” 279
Halfway Houses 279
House Arrest, Electronic Monitoring, and Global Positioning Systems 280
Concluding Remarks on Reentry and Recidivism 282
Summary 283
Key Terms 283
Discussion Questions 284
Useful Internet Sites 284

READINGS
15. Examining the Predictors of Recidivism Among Men and Women Released From Prison in Ohio 285
Matthew Makarios, Benjamin Steiner, and Lawrence F. Travis III
Examines the extent to which factors such as deficits in education, employment, and housing, as well as the lack of treatment programs, create barriers to the successful reentry of inmates released from prison.

   Richard P. Seiter and Karen R. Kadela
   Provides an overview and analysis of the various reentry programs.

17. Prisoner Reentry in a Small Metropolitan Community: Obstacles and Policy Recommendations
   Brett Garland, Eric J. Wodahl, and Julie Mayfield
   Provides a qualitative examination of the reentry experiences of male offenders living in a small metropolitan community.

Section VIII. The Corrections Experience for Staff

Introduction
The State of the Work in Correctional Institutions and Programs
   Growth in Staff and Clients/Inmates
   Rate of Pay
Why the Need to Require More Education and Training Exists
   Stanford Prison Experiment
   Abu Ghraib
Organizational-Level Factors That Affect the Correctional Workplace
   Bureaucracies
   Closed Institutions
   Total Institutions
Individual-Level Factors That Affect the Correctional Workplace
   Race/Ethnicity and Gender
   Age
   Prior Military Service
Correctional Roles
   The Role Defined
   Hack Versus Human Service
The Subculture and Socialization
   Subcultural Values
Staff Interactions With Inmates
   The Defects of Total Power
   The Correctional Role When Supervising Juveniles
Other Issues for Staff: Stress, Burnout, Turnover
Collective Bargaining
Abuse of Power
Use of Force
Ethics
Perceived Benefits of Correctional Work
Research on Correctional Staff
Summary
Key Terms
Discussion Questions
Useful Internet Sites

READINGS

18. Problems at Work: Exploring the Correlates of Role Stress Among Correctional Staff

Eric G. Lambert, Nancy L. Hogan, and Kasey A. Tucker

Examines whether different aspects of the work environment (input into decision making, supervision, formalization, integration, job performance, and instrumental communication) are linked to role stress among correctional staff.

Scott D. Camp, Thomas L. Steiger, Kevin N. Wright, William G. Saylor, and Evan Gilman

Examines staff perceptions of prison affirmative action policies.

20. Predicting Work-Related Stress in Correctional Officers: A Meta-Analysis

Craig Dowden and Claude Tellier

Provides an overview of the research on how stress affects correctional officers.

Section IX. Legal Issues in Corrections

Historical Background: Prisoners as Slaves of the State

The Prisoners’ Rights Period: 1964–1978

The Deference Period: 1997–Present

First Amendment

Fourth Amendment

Eighth Amendment

Fourteenth Amendment

The Civil Commitment of Sex Offenders

Curtailing Prisoner Petitions

The Death Penalty: Legal Challenges to the Ultimate Sanction

Summary

Key Terms

Discussion Questions

READINGS

21. Who Has the Body? The Paths to Habeas Corpus Reform

Cary Federman

Examines the history and development of habeas corpus law and recent efforts to restrict the use of habeas corpus by inmates.

22. Sex Offender Laws: Can Treatment, Punishment, Incapacitation, and Public Safety Be Reconciled?

Mary Ann Farkas and Amy Stichman

Discusses the competing interests at play in the development and implementation of sexual offender laws.

Section X. Correctional Programming and Treatment

Introduction: The Rise and Fall (and Rise Again) of Rehabilitation

History of Rehabilitation

The Shift From “Nothing Works” to “What Works?”
Evidence-Based Practices
Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy
Substance Abuse Programming
Anger Management
Therapeutic Communities
Pharmacological Treatment
Sex Offenders and Their Treatment
Mentally Ill Offenders
Summary
Key Terms
Discussion Questions
Useful Internet Site

READINGS

23. The Recent Past and Near Future of Risk and/or Needs Assessment
   D. A. Andrews, James Bonta, and J. Stephen Wormith
   Reviews the efficacy of inmate needs and risk assessment procedures.

24. Substance Abuse Treatment, Anticipated Maternal Roles, and Reentry Success of Drug-Involved Women Prisoners
   Cynthia A. Robbins, Steven S. Martin, and Hilary L. Surratt
   Provides an analysis of recidivism and relapse experiences of substance-abusing women inmates as they reenter the community.

25. Therapeutic Community in a California Prison:
    Treatment Outcomes After 5 Years
   Sheldon X. Zhang, Robert E. L. Roberts, and Kathryn E. McCollister
   Compares the recidivism rates of a group of inmates who participated in a prison-based therapeutic community in a California state prison with a comparison group of matched offenders.

Section XI. Women and Corrections

Introduction
History and Growth
   Women in Historic Prisons
   Race in Early Prisons
   Discipline in Women's Prisons
   Hiring of Female Matrons
   Houses of Refuge for Girls and Boys
   Growth in Numbers of Women and Girls
Current Figures on the Number of Women and Girls in Corrections
   Female Correctional Clients
   Female Staff
Feminism
Females in Corrections: Needs, Programming, Abuse, and Adjustment
   Needs and Programming
   Abuse
   Adjustment and Pseudo Families
Female Correctional Officers
   Overcoming Employment Obstacles
Current Status: Equal Employment Versus Privacy Interests of Inmates, Qualifications for the Job, and Sexual and Gender Harassment

Research on Women in Corrections
Summary
Key Terms
Discussion Questions
Useful Internet Sites

READINGS

26. A Historical Review of Mother and Child Programs for Incarcerated Women
Susan C. Craig
Provides a historical review and discussion of programs for incarcerated mothers and their children.

27. Pathways to Prison: Impact of Victimization in the Lives of Incarcerated Women
Dana D. DeHart
Examines the ways in which victimization may contribute to criminal involvement among incarcerated women.

Section XII. Minorities and Corrections

Introduction
Defining Race, Ethnicity, Disparity, and Discrimination
Disparity and Discrimination
A Legacy of Racism: African Americans, American Indians, Hispanics, Asian Americans
African Americans
Native Americans or American Indians
Hispanics/Latinos/Latinas
Asian Americans
The Connection Between Class and Race/Ethnicity
Minorities: Policies and Practices That Have Resulted in Increased Incarceration
The Drug War: The New Jim Crow?
Crack Versus Powder Cocaine
Racial Profiling and DWB
Minorities: Adjustment to Incarceration
Victimization by Race and Ethnicity
Probation or Prison?
Minorities Working in Corrections
Research on Minorities and Corrections
Summary
Key Terms
Discussion Questions
Useful Internet Sites

READINGS

28. Validity of the Level of Service Inventory–Revised (LSI-R) Among African American and Hispanic Male Offenders
Melinda D. Schlager and David J. Simourd
Examines the psychometric properties and validity of the LSI-R among a sample of African American and Hispanic male offenders.
29. Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Types and Sources of Victimization Inside Prison

Nancy Wolff, Jing Shi, and Cynthia L. Blitz

Examines rates of victimization for a single prison system by racial and ethnic groupings and by type of perpetrator.

30. Racial Desegregation in Prisons

Chad R. Trulson, James W. Marquart, Craig Hemmens, and Leo Carroll

Examines the history, law, and research regarding racial desegregation in American prisons.

---

Section XIII. Juveniles and Corrections

Introduction: Delinquency and Status Offending 583
The Extent of Delinquency 584
The Juvenile Brain and Juvenile Behavior 585
History and Philosophy of Juvenile Justice 585
Childhood in the United States 586
The Beginning of the Juvenile Courts 587
Processing Juvenile Offenders 588
Juveniles Waived to Criminal Court 588
Extending Due Process to Juveniles 590
Juvenile Community Corrections 592
Intensive Probation 594
Residential and Institutional Juvenile Corrections 595
Summary 596
Key Terms 597
Discussion Questions 597
Useful Internet Site 597

READINGS

31. Juvenile Justice: The Legacy of Punitive Policy

Peter J. Benekos and Alida V. Merlo

Discusses the consequence (both intended and unintended) of increasingly harsh punishment for juvenile offenders.

32. Juvenile Waiver, Boot Camp, and Recidivism in a Northwestern State

Benjamin Steiner and Andrew L. Giacomazzi

A case study of how one state uses differential sanctions for serious juvenile offenders.

33. A Quasi-Experimental Evaluation of a Shock Incarceration and Aftercare Program for Juvenile Offenders

James B. Wells, Kevin I. Minor, Earl Angel, and Kelli D. Stearman

Examines the impact of shock incarceration on juvenile offenders.

---

Section XIV. Corrections in the 21st Century

Introduction: Learning From the Past so That We Have Hope for the Future 624
Punitive Policies Yield Overuse of Corrections 624
Rethinking Theories of Corrections 627
Mass Decarceration? 628
   Decreased Use of Incarceration 628
   Explanations for the Decline in the Use of Incarceration 628
   The Recession and Decreased Use of Incarceration 629
   Court-Ordered Decarceration: The Special Case of California 630
   Implications of Decarceration and the Need for a Plan of Action 630
Professionalization 630
Corrections Is a Relationship Business 631
Privatization 632
   The Profit Motive in Corrections 632
   The Walnut Grove Correctional Facility 633
   The Extent of Privatization and Its Problems 634
Concluding Thoughts 634
The Future of Corrections Research Agenda 635
Summary 635
Key Terms 635
Discussion Questions 635
Useful Internet Sites 636

READINGS
   34. The Challenge of Change: Correctional Programs and Evidence-Based Practices 637
      Edward J. Latessa
      Discusses the need for more research on “what works” in corrections and the importance of basing correctional practices on evidence rather than anecdote.
   35. Make Rehabilitation Corrections’ Guiding Paradigm 645
      Francis T. Cullen
      Provides five reasons why criminologists should reaffirm rehabilitation as the guiding paradigm for correctional policy and practice.

Glossary 652
References 658
Photo Credits 672
Index 673
About the Authors 703